Police Log

Monday, August 10, 2009 9:27 AM HST

Editor's note: The police log is a weekly feature of West Hawaii Today and is compiled using Hawaii County Police Department records of individuals who are arrested and charged. Individuals are considered innocent until convicted in a court of law. Those who surrender to police are still considered arrested.

Aug. 2

- Jennifer Pearl Tozer, 34, of no permanent address, was arrested in the Kona District, charged with operating a vehicle under the influence of an intoxicant and released on $1,000 bail.

- Kristine Enriques Salvador, 25, of Hawaiian Ocean View Estates, was arrested in the Ka'u District. She was charged with simple trespassing and third-degree assault. Bail was set at $275.

- Gabriel Kaimana Keliikuli, 26, of Waimea, was arrested in the South Kohala District and charged with abuse of family or household members. Bail was set at $2,000.

- Preston Taylor Crowl, 44, of Kailua-Kona, was arrested in the Kona District. He was charged with operating a vehicle under the influence of an intoxicant and two counts of first-degree endangering the welfare of a minor. He was released on $1,500 bail.

Aug. 3

- Daisy Rodriguez, 51, of Niuli, was arrested in the North Kohala District, charged with criminal contempt of court and released on $150 bail.

- Rico Kalani Echiverri, 32, of Ocean View, was arrested in the Ka'u District, charged with violating a temporary restraining order and released on a $500 bail.

- Jimmy K. Minamishin, 18, of Kailua-Kona, was arrested in the Ka'u District. He was charged with two counts of abuse of family or household members and fourth-degree criminal property damage. Bail was set at $2,250.

- John Apele Kaluau, 56, of Ka'u, turned himself into the Kona police station. He was charged with five counts of violating a protection order and unauthorized entry of a dwelling. He was released on $5,000 bail.

- Clinton J. Treadway, 23, of Tempe, was arrested in the Kona District, charged with shoplifting and released on $250 bail.
